Washington EMC Building - North Harris St.

GREAT PROGRAM - FELLOWSHIP - REFRESHMENTS

The membership meeting of the Washington County Historical Society will hold its fall meeting on Monday night, October 28. The meeting will be at the Washington EMC Building at 7:30 p.m. Jo Cummings will bring a very interesting program on Historic Sites and Districts. Jo has been working with this project for some time and is well underway to having a specified Historic District established.

During the business session before the program there will be committee reports.

William Mathis will present to the club, a researched report on the history and restoration of the Washington County Jail as a museum. William did this work in connection with a course he took through Georgia College last summer.

Following the program there will be a fellowship and refreshments will be served. This is going to be an interesting and exciting meeting. All members will want to attend.
