SPECIAL HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEETING

Monday, June 16, 1986, - 7:30 P. M.

Washington EMC Building

DR. CEIELA VOELKER TO BE GUEST SPEAKER

Dr. Ceiela Voelker, Professor of Architecture at Clemson University will be the guest speaker at the Monday, June 16 meeting of the Washington County Historical Society. Dr. Voelker will present pictures of historical sites in Sandersville and Tennille which were designed by the architect, Choate.

There are numerous homes and commercial buildings in our area that were designed by Choate that are still in existence today.

This special meeting is being sponsored by the Historical Districts Committee of the Historical Society and should be of special interest to all those who are interested in our historical architecture.

PLEASE COME AND BRING A FRIEND! (The public is invited)

Refreshments will be served.
