SECOND QUARTERLY MEETING OF HISTORICAL SOCIETY, MONDAY, APRIL 24, 1989, AT 7:30 P.M.
CIVIC ROOM OF WASHINGTON EMC.

PROGRAM: The program for this meeting is "Land Use History of Georgia" presented by Dr. Lawrence R. Hepburn, Research Associate of the Carl Vinson Institute of Government, of the University of Georgia. He is author of several books and a number of articles on Environmental and Social Education. Dr. Hepburn says that he will begin his talk with General Oglethorpe and bring us up to date on land use in Georgia.

MUSEUM: On display now; two rooms of old pitchers and teapots, and also a display of "the Marshal Plan" an exhibit of it's 40th year, on loan from the Georgia Humanities Department of Emory University.

THE BOOK: "Cotton to Kaolin - HISTORY OF WASHINGTON COUNTY, 1784-1989" is in process.

GENEAOLOGY: The Genealogy Committee is open for business at the Genealogy room upstairs at the museum. They welcome the opportunity to help you with your family histories and other needs along this line.

MEMBERSHIP: You are urged to renew your membership and to invite others to join with us. See Patricia Mathis for details.
