Historical Plates
Introducing
A New Salad Plate

The New Georgia Salad Plates are available in both Blue and Pink, complementing the Official Georgia Plates

In 1932 Annie Louise Irwin

conceived and executed the design of the Georgia Historical Plates as part of the upcoming 1933 Georgia Bicentennial Celebration. Today, the Transylvania Club of Sandersville perpetuates her artistry with a newly designed salad plate. This new plate, designed by Brian Moncus of Sandersville, and crafted in Ireland by Belleek, perfectly complements the dinner plates so lovingly created by Louise Irwin over eighty years ago.

Georgia Historical Salad Plates are available for purchase throughout Georgia. To locate a retailer near you, visit:
